Award Policy

- The Bailli of each Bailliage may award one Bronze Star of Excellence or one Bronze Mondiale Medal of Honor per year to a deserving primary member of that Bailliage. It may not be awarded to a person whose primary membership is in another Bailliage but is holding a dual membership in that Bailliage.
- A Bailli may not award a Bronze Star of Excellence or Bronze Mondiale Medal of Honor to himself/herself.
- A Bailli Provincial may award a Silver or Bronze Star of Excellence or Silver or Bronze Mondiale Medal of Honor to deserving Baillis who have completed three years of service in that position. It is to be awarded for outstanding service and is not automatic. A Bailli Provincial may also award a Silver or Bronze Star of Excellence or Silver or Bronze Mondiale Medal of Honor to Regional Officers or members holding primary membership in his/her region, and who have distinguished themselves by performing outstanding service to the Region.
- A Bailli Provincial may not award a Silver or Bronze Star of Excellence or Silver or Bronze Mondiale Medal of Honor to Members in another Region or those holding only dual membership in his/her Region, but whose primary membership is in another Region.
- The awarding of the Gold Star of Excellence or the Gold Mondiale Medal of Honor is the exclusive prerogative of the Bailli Délégué des Etats-Unis. Recommendations for these awards may be made by the Baillis Provinciaux and forwarded to the Bailli Délégué des Etats-Unis for consideration.
